

The Last List

On each shelf draw or copy & paste 2 items that represent important things that happened during this school year. Next to each item explain what the picture represents and why you chose it as an important part of this school year. The whole shelf should be like a trophy case of the memories of this year.

